

Laidlaw Women's Leadership Fund

London Business School (LBS) and Laidlaw Foundation share a commitment to women in business and women's initiatives. We also share a joint vision – to help exceptional females to excel in their careers, regardless of their backgrounds.

Right for you?

From autumn 2020 - 2023, the Laidlaw Women's Leadership Fund will support 20 outstanding female scholars across the Masters in Management, MBA and EMBA programmes each year. Made possible by a generous £3.69m gift from the Laidlaw Foundation, the Fund will create a dynamic network of female peers at LBS and beyond. The Fund will strengthen our ambition for gender parity across our degree programmes - it aims to attract exceptional women from a diverse range of backgrounds, in particular women who may not otherwise be able to afford a top-tier business education.

Female Masters in Management, MBA and Executive MBA candidates with demonstrable financial need, academic merit and leadership potential are encouraged to apply.

“I owe a lot to LBS in terms of the practical and negotiating skills the programme helped me develop. Through my courses, the LBS network and the entrepreneurship classes on the programme I got a real feel for the entrepreneurial landscape, as well as the personal aptitudes and the mindset I'd need to move forward.”
