

Short programmes FAQs

Do you offer any scholarships?

We offer several scholarships for exceptional female leaders. Find out more here.

Do I need to attend the whole Executive Education programme?

Yes. To optimise the learning experience for you and your group, you will be expected to attend all programme sessions including group work and coaching sessions. You'll also be expected to take part in peer-to-peer learning.

Do I get a certificate once I've completed the programme?

Yes, you will get a digital certificate of attendance.

What is the application process?

You can apply to the programme of your choice online. Acceptance is not automatic, and your application will be reviewed by our team of Programme Consultants to ensure the best fit between applicants and programmes. Spaces on our programmes can fill up quickly so we encourage you to apply early and ensure your application is as comprehensive as possible.

What is the dress code for the programme?

We recommend smart casual. Business attire is not required (e.g. suit and tie), but you're welcome to wear it if you wish.

Do I need to bring my laptop, headphones etc? We would advise that you bring your laptop and headphones. You can also use a tablet device.

Will I have time for work calls and meetings?

To get the most from the experience, we recommend that you come prepared to focus on the programme. There will be regular breaks, but we encourage you to immerse yourself in the experience as much as possible and make arrangements at work for adequate cover while attending.

Are there any terms and conditions?

Yes, please review our T&Cs for more information. Ending your participation in the programme (which includes any substitutions, transfers, or postponements) must be confirmed via email to the Admissions Office. Cancellations received more than six weeks before the programme starts aren't subject to any penalty.

What if I need to cancel?

Providing you inform us in writing no less than six weeks before the programme's start date, you won't be charged a cancellation or transfer fee.

Read our full terms and conditions here.

Do I need to obtain a visa if I'm coming from overseas?

Visa requirements vary depending on your nationality and country of residence. We encourage you to use the 'check if you need a visa' tool on <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa> or to consult the UK consulate or embassy in your home country.

What facilities do you have at the London campus?

We have a gym with a swimming pool, the latest fitness equipment and daily exercise classes. On campus, you will also find eateries serving a range of food and drinks, and library access throughout the duration of your programme. Please do look at our campus map for a full overview of the location.

What level of English is required?

All our programmes are conducted in English and participants are expected to be able to understand, and contribute to, what can be very fast-paced class discussions.

Will I have to do any preparation before attending the programme?

You'll receive communication from your Programme Manager around six weeks before starting the programme. The information we send will direct you to our online learning platform which will include the programme timetable, pre-programme reading and preparation work, and an introduction to your fellow participants.

Where can I stay while taking a programme at London Business School?

While accommodation isn't included in the programme fee, we will provide recommendations for a nearby accommodation where you can take advantage of preferential rates, subject to availability.

How can this programme contribute to my long-term learning journey?

Our Certificate offering means that you can plan your own personalised learning journey by selecting four programmes of your choice, to be taken over 24 months. Discover more about how you can plan your route to career advancement with our Certificate in Management or Certificate in Finance.
